

AQAR 2021 -22

8.Future plans of action for next academic year 2022-23

Teaching learning process during academic year 2022-23 will be carried out by offline as well as online, teaching learning methods such as Google meet, Google classroom, YouTube video lecture, etc. Will be used. More innovative processes will be adopted by institution in teaching learning. Time table will be prepared taking into consideration of line as well as online teaching. Activities and students will be called in campus for work and classes by following instructions given by education Department of State Government and University. Faculties will be motivated for ICT classes and online classes. All other activities, this lecture, lectures under department linkages, and m o u lectures will be conducted online as well as offline. Seminar, conference, workshops and webinars will be organized and participated offline as well as online. Online lectures, session lectures will be made available for students. Library issue of books will be carried out as per pandemic situation guidelines and students will be motivated to use enlist as a knowledge resource. Student will be motivated and encouraged to attend online programs.This lecture will be organized online as well as offline. Anti ragging programs, law awareness programs, career guidance programs will be organized offline as well as online. Internal complaint committee (anti sexual harassment cell for women) programs will be organized offline as well as online or as per situation. Competitive exams guidance programs will be organized online and offline. Certificate and value-added courses in Hindi English economics and home science subject will be conducted offline as well as online. Programs and lectures on soft skill life skills and language and communication skills code of conduct, etc. Will be conducted online as well as offline as per situation. Nutrition awareness programs will be made available through online platforms. Birth and death anniversary of social leaders will be celebrated by following all rules of government guidelines. ICT computing skills will be taken online as well as offline. Skill in courses will be implemented online as well as offline. Seminar presentation by students, internal continuous assessment will be taken offline as well as online. All faculties institution will be motivated to attend online, refresher short term and FDP courses. Cultural activities will be conducted offline as well as online as per situation. Every Faculty in the institution motivated for writing quality research papers and paper publications in UGC approved journals. All faculties will also be motivated to create awareness about Covid-19 pandemic, immunity boosting diet, care, prevention and vaccination in society and community through online as well as offline platform. Solar panel system in the college will be expanded to satisfy more percentage of annual power requirement of the institution made by renewable energy sources. Constructed compost pit will be efficiently used to prepare organic compost from organic waste produced in college campus such as a trials and plants food wastage peels of fruits,etc. Institutions available infra structure and facilities of sports (indoor and outdoor), gymnasium will be fully utilized by student and faculties will be motivated to send minor/ major research proposals to UGC and various funding agencies. Unnat Bharat Abhiyan for the activities will be implemented as per sanctioned project proposals for development of adopted villages. Need based action plan will be implemented if sanctioned by UBA IIT, Delhi. Child guidance Ho and nutrition counselling Centre activities will be conducted as best practice – II by Department of Home Science by involving students and local community through offline as well as online platform. Through this center more activities will be organized to create awareness and counselling regarding Covid- 19. One research project Science University awareness among college students will be completed by Home science faculty. Various training and awareness programs for women, girls, children and youth will be conducted by Department of Home Science as Best practice- I. Institution will take more efforts regarding motivation of goals education in rural areas and continuation of goals education after marriage, as this is an institutional distinctiveness, institution will take more efforts regarding this aspect. As per the Covid-19 pandemic situation, students and faculties will be motivated for online based education system, e-learning and online based internal continuous assessment.

I/C PRINCIPAL

Swatantra Sainik Suryabhanji Pawar
Art's College, P. R. N. A. (Jn.)